

ASSESSMENT OF STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

An ongoing assessment of student achievement is a critical component of the educational process since it is a primary source of information for determining the learning progress of individual students as well as overall instructional program effectiveness. Such an ongoing assessment of student achievement shall be maintained by the district, and an annual report of the assessment results for each school year shall be made to the Board of Education.